Live at The Twyford is a series of concerts being presented by The Twyford in Merimbula in 2022 supporting regional musicians playing live original Australian music, funded through Live Music Australia – an Australian Government initiative.

Bega Valley-based multi-instrumentalist, producer and songwriter Ricky Bloomfield will be playing live and acoustic originals and launching his debut album in an intimate performance at 7.30pm on Saturday 10 September in Twyford Hall. Ricky will be joined on stage by Nick Keeling on keyboard, Chris Bird on cello, Oisín Smith-Coburn on saxophone and Chelsy Atkins on vocals.

In July this year Ricky set off for Los Angeles with the goal of filming, editing and releasing 8 music videos in 8 days to celebrate the recent release of his new album Chameleon Of Errors.

As a former aggressive inline skater, Bloomfield filmed the whole series on rollerblades skating around Los Angeles, Las Vegas and San Diego. By the end of the 8 days, he had rolled over 100km. 8 Music Videos in 8 days (on rollerblades) is out now on YouTube.

Chameleon Of Errors by Ricky Bloomfield Band features Pete Drummond (Dragon/Lee Kernaghan) on drums and Bobby Poulton (Dizzy Reed/Wolfmother) on Bass and is out now exclusively at www.rickybloomfieldband.com.

Support artist Lillian McVeity is a young singer songwriter from Bega who has featured on Triple J's Unearthed. Her musical style includes folk influences though her first single "Hearts in December" is more indie pop oriented. Lillian has been playing gigs and festivals around the local area for several years, and recently formed the band Aylagaze playing rock and dance music plus originals. Her guitar playing and lush harmonies create a muted and relaxed atmosphere.
