PALACE OF KYE LIVE AT THE TWYFORD

Local band Palace of Kye will be performing at The Twyford in Merimbula on Saturday 1 April at 7.30pm. The lineup of Brooke Marshall (Guitar/Vocals/Flute), Noel Whitem (Guitar/vocals), Chris Bird (Cello/Cigar Box Guitar) and Russell Cook (Drums) will be playing their signature blend of acoustic folk, blues, alt-country and Americana, and what makes this program extra special is that it's mostly originals.

Noel and Brooke have been playing together for 15 years, and the addition of Chris' string artistry and Russell's orchestral percussive stylings result in a mellow but engaging and always entertaining performance.

The band gets its name from Kye, the band's doggy mascot (who fancies herself as the band's manager). If you love minor keys, soulful solos and dirty blues you'll love this show.

This will be the final gig in this year's "Live At The Twyford" series supported by Live Music Australia, an Australian Government initiative to support live original Australian music. The Twyford's program has supported almost 60 musicians - mostly from our south east region - to develop local audiences again after COVID.

For more information and to book online ($20 plus ticketing fees) visit <https://thetwyford.com.au> or call 0421 199910. Remaining tickets at the door $25 open 30 minutes before the show. Refreshments on sale. BYO wine and beer in moderation.
